In the meantime, the following pages will provide you with valuable tips and facts that may be of importance to your event.

A CHÂTEAU STEEPED IN HISTORY

Conference Center Laxenburg's history is closely connected with the Imperial Court and its presence can be felt in the premises to this day.

Conference Center Laxenburg emerged from the former château theatre (with its adjoining rooms) and the imperial dining halls, where Maria Theresia and her Court once enjoyed theatre productions and culinary delights.

1753

The château theatre and dining hall wing were built according to the plans of Nicolò Pacassi.

1756

The dining hall wing is located on the square of the former House of Sinzendorf, which became imperial property.

The inner 'Oval Saal' impresses with a ceiling fresco by Vinzenz Fischer. The walls are divided by architectural murals and display

'Putti auf der Falkenjagd' (Putti hunting with falcons [sic]).

The Republic of Austria and provinces of Vienna and Lower Austria transformed the theatre into a unique conference centre during the renovation of the dilapidated château.

A high portico with curved gables is located at the side of the entrance to the park; the walls are divided by recessed areas and mounted panels. With regard to interior decoration, only the late Baroque painting with illusionistic architecture has been preserved in the auditorium. The upper zone with volutes, hanging garlands and cherubs was added in the 19th century.

At the time of Maria Theresa (and entirely in accordance with her wishes), many individuals, from emperors to commoners, visited Schloss Laxenburg on the outskirts of Vienna to meet or participate in events. Alongside Schönbrunn and Hofburg, it was the most important residence of the Habsburgs for centuries. It was where the most respected generals conferred in the then reception rooms of the château and today's event rooms of Conference Center Laxenburg – and where the history of Europe was written. Conference Center Laxenburg was and still is a popular meeting place for communicating. It is the fusion of the old with the desire to lend this historic building a purpose for the future that gives Conference Center Laxenburg its special charm.

Opposing terms and conditions of the counterparty shall have no effect and are excluded. Any derogation shall be valid only if made in writing, in a precisely defined scope and by authorised signatories. In cases of doubt, any derogation shall be interpreted restrictively. The counterparty shall comply with these conditions upon conclusion of the agreement, in any case upon the use of Conference Center Laxenburg. The counterparty assures VIA DOMINORUM Grundstückverwertungs Gesellschaft m.b.H. that it shall comply with any applicable regulation under commercial law or otherwise for which it is responsible and accepts liability for such compliance. If there is any doubt on the part of the counterparty as to the admissibility of instances of use, as to the scope of restrictions of use, respectively, conditions under commercial law, as to compliance with safety regulations or if it identifies deficiencies, then it is required to consult with Conference Center Laxenburg, respectively, give notice of such circumstances. It is noted that on no account shall provision of the premises for the purpose of holding events be subject to Austria's

Landlord and Tenant Act (Mietrechtsgesetz). The leasing/letting of the premises shall always be limited to the duration of the contractually agreed event and end in line with the intended duration of the event provided for in the individual contract. Hence, regardless of type the contractual right of use shall expire without the need for a notice of termination.

2. PUTTING THE CONTRACT INTO SPECIFIC FORM

The location and time span of the event to which the contract relates and the extent and type of other services as well as services of third parties requiring organisation are derived from the contract concluded separately. The counterparty shall give written notification (by fax or email) of the number of participants by no later than 14 days before the event. This number shall be regarded as a guaranteed minimum number for which Conference Center Laxenburg shall make any necessary preparations. If the organiser does not provide Conference Center Laxenburg with a guaranteed number by no later than 14 days before the event, then the number specified in the contract shall be regarded as the guaranteed number.

3. TRANSFER OF RIGHTS (LIABILITY OF THE ORGANISER)

Any individual who signs the contract or order on behalf of the organiser is liable for the satisfaction of any obligation of the organiser arising from the contract jointly and severally with the organiser. The organiser shall specify in the contract the individuals authorised to carry out transactions on its behalf. If no such individuals are specified, then Conference Center Laxenburg may deem that those individuals who sign the contract are authorised to do so as they are regarded as having been appointed to conclude the contract by the organiser.

6. LIABILITY OF CONFERENCE CENTER LAXENBURG AND ACCIDENTS

Any conditions shall be satisfied by the organiser at its own expense such that Conference Center Laxenburg is not disadvantaged and incurs no expense.

If the attendance of officials from a regulatory body is imposed, then this shall be ensured in due time by and at the expense of the organiser. If compliance with any of the conditions imposed is – for whatever reason – not ensured or ceases to be ensured by the organiser, then Conference Center Laxenburg may prohibit or cancel the event. In such cases, the rules on cancellation shall apply mutatis mutandis. Moreover, the organiser may use its own caterer and only lease the premises of Conference Center Laxenburg. The organiser undertakes to pay the charges associated with cleaning the preparation kitchen provided by Conference Center Laxenburg to the caterer at the usual rates. Unless already provided for in the contract, any other special requirements of the organiser shall be charged separately and in addition to the agreed fee. Food and drink may be taken onto the premises only by the catering company that has been booked. Exceptions must be agreed in the contract in writing.

13. DECORATIONS AND STRUCTURES

If the organiser intends to install decoration material or technical structures in the premises, then this must be agreed beforehand in writing. Damage must not be caused by such decorations or structures to the architecture and rooms of Conference Center Laxenburg. In the case of (technical) structures, appropriate precautions shall be taken to ensure that the areas made available are not damaged, the walls and floors in particular. Any decorations or structures provided by Conference Center Laxenburg shall remain the property of Conference Center Laxenburg; the organiser shall make good any damage to such items. The cost of the decoration and structures shall be borne by the organiser. The organiser shall reimburse Conference Center Laxenburg with any expenses in this regard.

16. INSPECTIONS

The counterparty acknowledges that – even during the contract period – Conference Center Laxenburg is entitled to inspect the rooms and areas used by the organiser provided that the object of the contract or legitimate interests of the organiser are not severely prejudiced by this. 19. CANCELLATION AND TERMINATION

Conference Center Laxenburg is entitled to cancel the contractual relationship without notice – even during the event – if the required payments on account are not made in due time, if the event jeopardises the smooth operation of Conference Center Laxenburg or the reputation and security of Conference Center Laxenburg or of participants and personnel or if the event cannot be carried out or completed as intended for reasons of force majeure. In any such case, the organiser shall not be entitled to make any claim whatsoever against Conference Center Laxenburg due to termination of the contractual relationship.

Otherwise, the conditions of the contract concluded separately with the caterer shall apply. Furthermore, Conference Center Laxenburg shall be reimbursed with any costs and expenses already incurred. It is only possible to derogate from these terms of cancellation in writing in the contract.

21. PAYMENT ON ACCOUNT

An advance payment of 80% of the expected sales volume plus VAT if applicable shall be paid by the organiser 30 days before the date of the event. In such cases, the rules on cancellation shall apply mutatis mutandis.

22. PAYMENT

Payment for provision of the premises and any other services rendered by Conference Center Laxenburg shall be made with due regard to the agreed advance payments. Services rendered by third parties shall be agreed and paid for directly. After prior written agreement, Conference Center Laxenburg is authorised to draw up an aggregate statement for all services rendered in the course of the event; subcontracted supplies and services (such as catering) shall be charged in the name and on behalf of the third party. The outstanding amount invoiced is due within 14 days of receipt of the invoice, but no later than 18 days from the date of the invoice (if not already due and payable in part or in whole prior to the event under the contract) without any deductions. In the event of late payment, interest on arrears as provided by law for business transactions according to § 1333 para 2 Austrian Civil Code (Allgemeines Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch - ABGB) is agreed.

23. ADDRESS OF THE ORGANISER

Declarations and notices sent by Conference Center Laxenburg to the last address notified by the organiser shall also be regarded as having been delivered if the organiser fails to notify Conference Center Laxenburg of a change of address.

24. JURISDICTION

The contractual relationship shall be governed exclusively by Austrian law. The principles on conflicts of law are excluded. The parties agree that the court competent for the Vienna Innere Stadt (1st Municipal District of Vienna) or at the discretion of Conference Center Laxenburg the competent court in St. Pölten shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

These general terms and conditions are explicitly acknowledged by the organiser upon signing the contract and represent an integral part of the contractual relationship.
